

AMERICAN EXPRESS™ TRAVEL WELCOMES
BRICKELL TRAVEL MANAGEMENT
TO U.S. REPRESENTATIVE TRAVEL NETWORK

NEW YORK – September 1, 2011

American Express™ have just announced the addition of corporate and leisure travel management company Brickell Travel Management to its U.S. Representative Travel Network as part of a continued commitment to growth by providing American Express Travel benefits to a broader group of travelers and Cardmembers.

“The addition of Brickell Travel Management to our growing Network allows us to expand our customer reach through a company whose passion for travel and exceptional level of customer service echoes that of American Express Travel,” said Ellen Bettridge, vice president, U.S. Representative Network. “We are pleased to welcome them to the U.S. Representative Network.”

“We are excited to be partnering with such a powerful global network,” says

Maikel Rodriguez, president of Brickell Travel Management. In addition to getting the outstanding personalized service, our clients can now take advantage of the American Express Pay with Points program, where American Express Charge Cardmembers can use Membership Rewards to pay for Airline tickets, Hotel Stays, Cruises or entire vacations!

Ranked among the top travel management firms in Florida, Brickell Travel/Kirsten Travel Management’s 50 plus agents have provided its clients with high quality business travel management services, internet-based technology solutions and significant cost savings for more than 30 years. We serve clients worldwide from our headquarters in Miami’s Brickell area.
